WOMEN ENTERTAIN

Members of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion entertained Mrs. George Davis of Houston with a luncheon at the Nassau Hotel. The table was beautifully decorated, an especially attractive decoration being a large basket of lily-like hyacinths in the center of the table. The plate favors were white and little paper cups were the home-made presentation was presented with a beautiful orange bouquet.

Those present besides the home guest were Madames E. H. Davis, W. W. Turner, G. A. Carter, Harry Arthur Williams, George, Bernice and Cecelia Hartill, several guests mostly throughout the guests of Mrs. Carter and Mrs. G. B. Scott. The luncheon was a delightful affair and was enjoyed.

After the luncheon the party adjourned to the city theater where a motion picture was shown, a quiet talk before other forms of amusement. It is one of the recent customs in leading cities in the Houston area and it proved a happy occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, a former attorney of Houston, were present during the meeting. They
